

Recollections and New Directions: Symposium in Memory of John Heilbron (1934–2023)

July 5

Historicum K001

13:30

Welcome & Introduction

Kärin Nickelsen

Panel 1

Chair: Johannes-Geert Hagmann

14:00

John Heilbron, Copenhagen, and the Quantum

Finn Aaserud (NBA Copenhagen)

14:45

“The Great Divide”: Debates in History of Science, ca. 1980

Amelie Mittlmeier (LMU Munich)

15:30

Coffee Break

Panel 2

Chair: Cora Stuhmann

16:00

The Institutionalization of Science in Early Modern Europe

Stefano Gattei (University of Trento)

16:45

Lightning in the Monastery: From Natural Philosophy to Laboratory Science

Julia Bloemer (University of Flensburg)

17:30

Coffee Break

17:45

Keynote

Chair: Helmuth Trischler

David Bohm’s Lectures on Quantum Theory and Dialectical Materialism

Jürgen Renn (MPI of Geoanthropology)

Recollections and New Directions: Symposium in Memory of John Heilbron (1934–2023)

July 6

Deutsches Museum, Alter Seminarraum

Panel 3

Chair: Daniel Liu

09:30

John Heilbron as Peripatetic / Werner Heisenberg Reading Aristotle

Liba Taub (HPS Cambridge)

10:15

“A Few of the New Editor’s Crotchets”: Heilbron at HSPS

Joseph D. Martin (Durham University)

11:00

Coffee Break

Panel 4

Chair: Karin Nickelsen

11:30

Exploding Myths: Electrifying Philosophers’ Reflections on Science as a Social Affair

Caterina Schürch (TU Berlin)

12:15

X-Rays in the History of Learning

Sven Dupré (Utrecht University)

13:00

Wrap-Up and Farewell

Johannes-Geert Hagmann (Deutsches Museum)

after lunch
(optional)

New Exhibition: Light and Matter

Guided Tour at Deutsches Museum

Deutsches Museum

